Jesus Is Alive!

During this unit the dramatic play area will be transformed into a church and an empty tomb the next week. We will be encouraging the students to retell the Easter story complete with costumes of Jesus, the angels and Jesus' friends.

Empty Tombs: Check the school newsletter for a recipe/activity to do with your child at home. You will wrap a marshmallow in a biscuit and then it will be baked. Imagine your child's surprise when he/she bites into the cooked dough and the marshmallow is gone! This cooking project will offer a clear visual representation of the empty tomb left when Jesus rose from the dead.

Jesus Time

Jesus Rides into Jerusalem

The people on that day thought that Jesus was riding into Jerusalem to rescue them from Roman oppression and be their earthly king. We know that Jesus came to Jerusalem for a much greater purpose: to save us all from sin, death and the power of the devil.

The Woman Anoints Jesus' Head and Feet

We meet a selfless woman receiving forgiveness from her Savior. Joyful in Christ, she lavishly honored Him with expensive and fragrant ointment. Jesus said: "In pouring this ointment on My body, she has done it to prepare Me for burial" (Matthew 26: 10,12)

The Crucifixion

Jesus became sin for us. He bore the weight of millions of people's sins and shortcomings on Himself. Thanks be to Jesus who not only saved us from our sins, but also became sin for us, destroying sin's power through His death and resurrection.

Easter Morning

After the darkness of Good Friday, the resurrection brilliance breaks through on Sunday morning! Matthew paints a picture worthy of Hollywood- an earthquake, the guards shaking like dead men, the angel descending from heaven and rolling the stone away. Then we learn that Matthew ran into Jesus Himself, risen from the dead! He has risen, indeed!

Lovingly, He died for me, Yes he really did!
Do you know who rose for me?

Lovingly, He rose for me yes he really did!
...Do you know who live for me?
