Description: This group will focus on communicating God's love to your children in the everyday. Join the private Facebook group at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/183842695846914/> where we'll share stories, connect, and support each other through prayer. I'm also available to schedule one on one conversations. This group is open to parents of any age child. All are welcome.

OPTION 2 - BUILD YOUR OWN GROUP (In person or online)

Invite your friends, those with whom you are already meeting in person or those you'd like to see online, to join you in a conversation that invites us to know Jesus better and love Jesus more. You can use our Sunday teaching/sermon as a conversation starter or you can create your own conversation. If you are interested in building your own group we want to be helpful and encouraging by celebrating the work of God in your group, praying with you and for you and providing you with resources that will help you facilitate your group interaction. Send your build a group contact information to alan@pearlandvineyard.org

OPTION 3 - HOST A HOUSE PARTY

Invite your friends, family and neighbors, to join you to view our Sunday online service live or at the time you choose once the video is posted. If you are interested in hosting a house party we want to be helpful and encouraging by celebrating the work of God in your group, praying with you and for you and providing you with resources that will help you facilitate your group interaction. Send your house party contact information to alan@pearlandvineyard.org
