WORKSHOP DIRECTORS

Justin Guess, Wayne Jones, Patrick Hammack, John Moore, and David Olmos direct this workshop. Their goals are to strengthen preachers, encourage the church, and glorify God through this effort.

COST

Focal Point is completely free for all attendees.

WHAT TO BRING

Be sure to bring your Bible and something for taking notes—whether it's a notebook and pen, a laptop, or a tablet. While a few power strips will be available, you may want to bring your own just in case.

FOOD

Coffee and donuts are available each morning, Thursday through Saturday, courtesy of the McCarty Student Center.

Lunch is provided on Thursday thru Saturday, and dinner will be served on Friday evening. Light snacks and drinks are also available daily.

LODGING

Free housing with local church members is available on a limited, first-come, first-served basis for the duration of the workshop. To request housing, please contact the church office directly at 512-353-2487.

For those preferring hotel accommodations, numerous options are available in San Marcos, as well as in nearby cities like Kyle and New Braunfels—often at more affordable rates.

Focal Point is hosted by the University church of Christ in San Marcos, Texas.
