Our Weekly Bread

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us - and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action.

And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Wesley Hugs

You are truly a concerned and caring family and we love you. Thank you so much for all your prayers, emails, cards, calls and visits during Pete's recent second back surgery at University Hospital and rehab at Harrington Park. We also enjoyed the flowers and Denali doggie therapy provided while at Harrington Park by Dan and Tami Bernhardt. We are blessed to call Wesley our church home. Please continue your prayers for pain relief as Pete continues to recover at home. In Christ's love,

Pete and Janice McDonald
