by Lynn Turner

"I am your son. You teach me, and I go to other villages and teach them what you teach me. I am your son". These were the words of a village chief as he was taking us upriver to his village.

Trip to Tugri, Panamá

Special Thanks to a group of guys from Mile Straight Baptist Church who came to reach out into new areas amongst the Ngobe-Buglé tribe. We walked many miles over rough, mountainous terrain and distributed over 100 audio Bibles (messengers). Two people were saved as a result of this effort.

Hernán, the Indian guide, listened attentively as Russ explained to a Ngobe lady how use the messenger. From that point forward he gave the explanation - in Ngobe -to all who received a messenger.

Upcoming events:

February 10-28 - Teaching seminars (Costa Abajo, Loma Cobá), Panamá
