DYING TO SERVE GOD

BY: LYNN TURNER

I was a "Jonah", said Pastor Julio, "But after three near-death experiences, God got my attention."

Julio accepted the Lord as a young man and later attended a Bible conference where God called him to preach, but he refused and instead became a chemist in the coca trade.

San Antonio de Cacao, Peru

We had the privilege of visiting this village after helping them financially with the building of their church building. We enjoyed a service and fellowship with these people.

Pastor Julio is enjoying the new boat that YOU our partners provided for him as well as the new building that is now finished.

Lynn's Corner

Although the past two months have been busy in meetings in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Georgia and Alabama, we had a few days to spend with our daughter, son-in-law and three of our granddaughters. We made the most of each day going to the park, eating ice cream, playing games and just having fun. We hope to see our other children (and grandchild!) in Costa Rica soon.

Rainy season

(May-November) is waning, so it is easier to get into the jungle areas once again. Russ is traveling to the Amazon region next week and will be visiting many villages upriver. This will be an evangelistic trip as well as one of teaching new believers. We're excited about the new motor provided for the boat trip! Our previous mo-tor has been used for several years and is ready to retire. We didn't want to be days upriver with a faulty motor!

Prayer Requests:

- November trip to the Amazon - We will be visiting several villages upriver.
- December trip to the Guahibos
- Seminar expecting 150 Guahibo pastors

Praises

- Funds provided for new outboard motor for Amazon River ministry
- 2- motorcycles bought for Guahibo jungle ministry
- Funds provided for gas/oil for Amazon trip upriver this month.

Thank you

to all our partners who faithfully pray for us, host us when we are in your area, and generally encourage us as we strive to be your ambassadors to the regions beyond.

Servants for Christ,

Russ and Lynn Turner
