Amos 8:4

As We Gather

In Lutheran Worship, we see God coming to us in Word and Sacrament, which stands apart from daily life. Our place of employment, or our school—where we struggle to be “the people of God” amid the temptations and confusing details of living in a world still disfigured by sin, tragedy, selfishness, and death. The prophet Amos reminds us that our worries and distractions can distance us from faith and caring for others. Each day of the week, the demands of the Ten Commandments of God call us back to our need for forgiveness and God’s mercy, grace, help, and love. We gather in Worship to repent, receive forgiveness, and be renewed through Christ, whose sacrifice assures us of redemption and everlasting life, even now.

Holy Communion

Holy Communion is being celebrated today. It is the belief of the Lutheran Church, based on Jesus’ own words, that in this Sacrament His body and blood are really present and that forgiveness of sins and the assurance of salvation are offered to all who come confessing their sins and believing in Him. Communion is therefore offered to those who share this confession of faith. Children who are not yet confirmed are invited to come forward with their parents to receive a blessing. Guests who may have questions about Communion at Mt. Calvary are encouraged to talk to Pastor Andrew or Pastor Pete.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND GREETING

INVOCATION AND CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalm 119:132-142)

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Righteous are You, O LORD, and right are Your just decrees.

Righteous are You, O Lord.

You have appointed Your testimonies in righteousness and in all faithfulness.

Righteous are You, O Lord.

My zeal consumes me, because my foes forget Your words.

Righteous are You, O Lord.

Your promise is well tried, and Your servant loves it.

Righteous are You, O Lord.

Your righteousness is righteous forever, and Your law is true.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS AND ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

My brothers and sisters in Christ, where our Lord is, there is forgiveness. We come together in His name, seeking not only His presence but also His grace. Let us, then, confess our sins.

(Please kneel)

Almighty God, merciful Father,

I have sinned in thought, word, and deed. I have not loved you with my whole heart, soul, and mind, and I have not loved my neighbor as myself. I ask your forgiveness not because of my own worthiness, but purely for the sake of the passion, death, and resurrection of my Savior, Jesus Christ. O Lord, forgive me, and by your Spirit, lead me on the paths of righteous living for your name's sake. Amen.

As you believe, so let it be. As a called and ordained servant of the Word, speaking in the name and stead of my Lord Jesus Christ, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE:

"The Heart of Worship"

When the music fades, all is stripped away, and I simply come;
Longing just to bring, something that's of worth
That will bless your heart

Pre-Chorus

I'll bring you more than a song,
For a song in itself is not what You have required
You search much deeper within
Through the way things appear;
You're looking into my heart

Chorus

I'm coming back to the heart of worship
And it's all about You, its all about You, Jesus
I'm sorry Lord for the thing I've made it,
When it's all about You, all about You, Jesus

King of endless worth, no one could express, how much You deserve;
Though I'm weak and poor, all I have is Yours, every single breath (Pre-Chorus)

(Chorus 2x)

THE OLD TESTAMENT READING: Amos 8:4–7 (The coming day of bitter mourning.)

⁴ Hear this, you who trample on the needy and bring the poor of the land to an end, ⁵ saying, "When will the new moon be over, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may offer wheat for sale, that we may make the ephah small and the shekel great and deal deceitfully with false balances, ⁶ that we may buy the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals and sell the chaff of the wheat?" ⁷ The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: "Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE NEW TESTAMENT READING: 1 Timothy 2:1–15 (Pray for all people.)

¹ First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, ² for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. ³ This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, ⁴ who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵ For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶ who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time. ⁷ For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

⁸ I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling; ⁹ likewise also that women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly attire, ¹⁰ but with what is proper for women who profess godliness—with good works. ¹¹ Let a woman learn quietly with all submissiveness. ¹² I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man; rather, she is to remain quiet. ¹³ For Adam was formed first, then Eve; ¹⁴ and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. ¹⁵ Yet she will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with self-control.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 16:1–15 (The parable of the dishonest manager.)

¹ He also said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his possessions. ² And he called him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’ ³ And the manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. ⁴ I have decided what to do, so that when I am removed from management, people may receive me into their houses.’ ⁵ So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ ⁶ He said, ‘A hundred measures of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’ ⁷ Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’ ⁸ The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. ⁹ And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings.

¹⁰ “One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. ¹¹ If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? ¹² And if you have not been faithful in that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own? ¹³ No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.”

¹⁴ The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, and they ridiculed him.

¹⁵ And he said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ

THE NICENE CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE MESSAGE:

Pastor Andrew Howe

THE TIME OF RESPONSE: Welcome to worship, we are so glad you are here! You are encouraged to fill out an Attendance Card (There is a side for both our guests and members to fill out), and place it in the offering plates, which are located at each entrance of the Sanctuary. If you have an offering, your offering may be placed in these plates, preferably before Worship begins. This helps our usher gather our offerings to bring forward and return them before God.

If you would like to make your offering at Mount Calvary electronically, an easy way is to use the QR Code on the left to access the Vanco online giving option.

THE DISTRIBUTION SONGS: "Be Thou My Vision"

Be thou my vision, oh, Lord of my heart

I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord
Thou my great Father, and I thy true Son
Thou in me dwelling and I with thee one

Chorus

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Let us pray. Almighty God, you provide the true bread from heaven, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant that we who have received the gift of His body and blood may abide in Him and He in us, that we may be filled with the power of His endless life, now and forever.

Amen.

THE BENEDICTION

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face shine on you and be gracious to you. The Lord look upon you with favor and give you peace.

Amen.

THE CLOSING SONG:

"His Mercy is More"

Chorus

Praise the Lord
His mercy is more
Stronger than darkness, new every morn
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more

What love could remember no wrongs we have done
Omniscient, all knowing, he counts not their sum
Thrown into a sea without bottom or shore
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more (Chorus)

What patience would wait as we constantly roam
What father, so tender, is calling us home
He welcomes the weakest, the vilest, the poor
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more (Chorus)

What riches of kindness he lavished on us
His blood was the payment, his life was the cost
We stood 'neath a debt we could never afford
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more (Chorus)

Attention All Men: We are experiencing a shortage of Ushers for all services. This service to God and Mt. Calvary does not take up any of your free time. The Ushers provide the Elders with a support team to pass out bulletins, greet people at sanctuary door, assist with communion, ensure we have an accurate attendance count, and following services check sanctuary to ensure all is in order for the following service. Each Ushers team is scheduled for three (3) months each year in addition to the requirements of special services during our church year. This may seem like a lot of effort but in reality is very easy to accomplish. If you are interested or have further questions please contact Don Parrott at cell number 478-335-3684 or email at parrottd1@cox.net.

Volunteer Tutors Needed for Rebecca's Garden

Since 2016, Rebecca's Garden Tutoring and Mentoring Program (RG@MC) has been Mount Calvary's ongoing ministry to our "neighborhood" in partnership with Shirley Hills Elementary School. This year, we have received an increased number of student referrals who are performing below grade level. As a result, we are in need of additional volunteer tutors to teach basic reading and math, once a week, for about an hour on most Tuesdays (except holidays) from September 2025 through April 2026. No teaching or tutoring experience is necessary, and we have plenty of resources and human helpers available to guide you through each step.

Finally, if you have ever read a story book to or played a counting/numbers game with a young friend, sibling, your child or grandchild, then you are more than qualified to be a tutor for Rebecca's Garden. Oh, and the pay is incredible! You will experience a heartwarming and priceless reward by helping an elementary student, who simply needs a warm smile and support, to learn and reinforce the basic skills for succeeding academically. If you are able to make a difference by tutoring a student, please contact Karen Harmon at (478) 918-3685.

The Mount Calvary 45th Anniversary Directory pictures will be taken October 2-5. Deadline for reserving your photo shoot is September 28, 2025. As current, new, or joining members, you are an important part of this history. Do not miss out on the chance to be represented. You may use the QR code below, sign up at the Information Desk or call Debby Miller (316-573-6565)
