Vision 200: A Hunger Is Being Revealed

This past week, many in our church family fasted and prayed as we gathered for our Vision 200 listening session. What unfolded was more than brainstorming. It was discernment.

There was honesty.
There was humility.
There was hope.

And beneath all the ideas about discipleship, hospitality, leadership development, outreach, and stewardship, something deeper surfaced — a hunger.

Not a hunger for busyness.
Not a hunger for more programs.
But a hunger for God.

A hunger to grow — not just numerically, but spiritually.
A hunger for clearer pathways.
A hunger to belong more deeply.

A hunger to live a faith that is not shallow, hurried, or performative — but rooted and real.

When people begin to feel that kind of hunger, it is usually because God is already stirring.

The question is not whether we have ideas. We do.
The deeper question is: What kind of people are we becoming?
And what is God trying to awaken in us?

Today's message speaks directly into that ache — the one you may not even have words for yet.

Come ready.

God is doing deep work among us.
