Exodus 3-4:17 - Finally...God Breaks In - Exodus week 4
September 28, 2025

God's Story

Exodus 2:23–25, 3-4:17

When God breaks in, He reveals...

1. His presence in the ordinary moments of life

Exodus 3:1–6

2. His plan shaped by His purposes

Exodus 3:7–12, 16–22

3. His nature and our true identity

Exodus 3:13–15; 4:1–17; 1 Corinthians 1:24–31; Philippians 3:7-10; 2 Corinthians 12:10; Isaiah 6:8

4. His power through our surrender

Exodus 4:1–9

5. His strength in our weakness and through our obedience

Exodus 4:10–17; 2 Chronicles 16:9; Philippians 1:3-6; Matthew 28:18-20

Small Group Questions:

1. Seeing God in the Ordinary: When have you experienced God breaking into an ordinary moment of your life, like Moses at the burning bush? How did that change the way you viewed your everyday circumstances?
2. Trusting His Plan: Exodus 3:7–12 shows God’s plan unfolds through His purposes, not our timing. In what areas of your life are you tempted to doubt God’s timing or plan? How can you trust Him more in those moments?
3. Identity in God: Moses wrestled with “I am not” before God revealed His “I AM.” What are some “I am not” statements you carry? How does God’s nature and your identity in Him challenge or reshape those beliefs?

Be Intentional:

This week, identify one ordinary thing in your life—your time, talent, or resource—that you can intentionally offer to God. Surrender it to Him and take a small step of obedience, trusting that He will multiply it for His purposes.

Pray:

Spend time praying together. What are some ways in which you can pray for each other? Take some time in the coming week to explore ways in which you can encourage one another. Remember to share with your group what you are learning about those opportunities and reflect on God’s Word as you pray for each other.
