

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

For the week of February 10 - 16, 2019 (week 2)

Quick Review: Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

Q.1

A good student of a Rabbi was one who would slow down and seek to tune in to what is being taught. In what ways are you being asked/prompted to slow down so you can learn all that God is trying to teach you through life and His word?

Q.2

In addition to the previous question, Ron also shared this week that a good student will also seek to submit to what they hear. When it comes to submitting to what you hear from God, what practices are you applying that helps you to be more fully in tune to His voice?

Q.3

So many times, we try to do things apart from God. Share an example of when you attempted to 'go it alone'. What was the outcome and how did you experience God's grace in that experience?

Q.4

At Journey, we encourage sharing God's love and grace within our community. Think of ways where you can exercise that gift. Share a personal experience of how you have been able to serve others and how that experience has impacted your heart and life.

Continuing the Journey: In light of this week's teaching and study on Matthew 4, is there anything you feel you are being called to start, stop or keep doing?
