Pastor Dial baptizes six new members

It is impossible to write a letter and include everything that happens in just one month, especially one as packed as this last one has been. Salvations, baptism's, weddings (more on this on Facebook), Christmas and New Year's blessings abound. Regina and I managed to squeeze in some time to obtain our cedula's (Dominican ID's). We were also able to make a new family portrait which has been included on this clickable letterhead below. This .jpeg is downloadable in high quality under the resource tab on www.DR4Christ.com

Sadly, we lost a close loved one and brother in Christ, Steve Moncrief. He was my Dad's best friend and was at both my Mom and Dad's funerals last year. Learned so much from him growing up and shared my thoughts and memories with his family online here. In all this, we also were blessed to celebrate Christmas with both our boys, Tyler and Jordan in Costa Rica, C.A. Rare do all four generations of our missionary family gather but the Barnes', Weed's and Regina's faithful grandmother Maudie Meek were all blessed to be together again. God is good.

Christmas Blessings

It is a wonderful Christmas when your son comes home from seminary. It is a great Christmas when as parents we have the opportunity to hear him preach (Luke 8:22-25). However, it is the GREATEST Christmas ever when two ladies come forward and receive Christ (Rosalie and Juana who Regina shared with after the invitation) as their personal Savior.
