

Table Talk

Parents, it's often hard to get children to open up and have a meaningful conversation, especially about God and their relationship to Jesus Christ. Any mealtime is a good time to spark the conversation with your kids. TABLETALK will hopefully provide a conversation starter or question to kickstart your family forward in discipleship and growth in God's Word.

- If you had to wear an object around your neck at all times—something attached to a chain—what would it be?
- Romans 13:14 says to “put on the Lord Jesus Christ”. How do we “wear” Christ for others to see?
- A lot of people wear crosses as a necklace. Does that mean they love Jesus or that they are Christians?
