“In” God the Father

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

1 Thessalonians 1:1

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 1:1–2

As we have been reading + listening to God’s word each month, I noticed something that I’ve never noticed before (after years and years of reading the Bible!). Paul typically speaks of us being “in Christ.” He typically describes what it is like to be in union with Christ. But as he begins both 1 and 2 Thessalonians, Paul says that we are also “in God the Father.” We are in union with our Father, too! This is our true identity: we are sons and daughters of our Heavenly Father. We are God’s kids! Safe and secure in our family. What a glorious thought!

What new things have you learned or seen as you have been reading God’s word this year?

Still learning and seeing new things in His word,
