Crushed Satan Like the Peanuts at Klondike’s

I never like it when Christian’s (musicians especially) are flippant with Satan as if he weren’t a powerful spiritual being created by God. Nor should we magnify him, however, as if he were deity or equal in power to God. Scripture tells us to stand firm against him in spiritual warfare. It also tells us that God will make him like the peanuts on the floor at Klondike’s.

The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Romans 16:20

First, take note of the contrast, God of peace vs crush Satan. These aren’t phrases we’d typically associate with each other but in the greatness and mystery of God, they are fitting and true.

Second, we need and enjoy His grace. Though Satan torment, our God of peace carries us by His grace.

Third, part of that grace and to bring peace includes the crushing of Satan AND the crushing of him underneath our feet. We don’t do the crushing, God does by His own power. We walk victorious by His might over our crushed foe...like the peanuts on the floor at Klondike’s Pizza.

Whatever you’re facing that is weighing you down, whichever front in this spiritual war upon which you find yourself in battle, stand firm in the presence of our great God and remember that He will soon crush Satan underneath your feet!
