Morning Prayer

Prayer of Introduction

God, of thy goodness, give me Thyself; for Thou art enough for me, and I can ask for nothing less that can be full honor to Thee. And if I ask anything that is less, ever Shall I be in want, for only in Thee have I all.”
- Julian of Norwich

Closing Meditation

“All shall be well, and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well.”
- Julian of Norwich

Celebrating the Saints: Julian (or Juliana) of Norwich (late 1342 – after 1416) was an English anchoress of the Middle Ages. She wrote the earliest surviving book in the English language to be written by a woman, Revelations of Divine Love. Julian was known for her deep love and commitment to Christ and desire to meditate on His Passion.

Morning Prayer Alternate Psalm 90:1-4 (NIV)

“Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.
 Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
 You turn people back to dust, saying, “Return to dust, you mortals.”
 A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by,
 or like a watch in the night.”
