Esther Saved Her People

Esther

STORY POINT: GOD MADE ESTHER A QUEEN TO PROTECT HIS PEOPLE.

The king of Persia chose Esther to be his queen. Esther didn't tell the king that she was a Jew. One day, Mordecai heard that Haman was planning to kill all the Jews. Mordecai was upset! He was a Jew; he didn't want all the people he loved to be killed. Mordecai told Esther about Haman's evil plan. Mordecai said, "Ask the king to save the Jewish people."

"No one can approach the king unless the king calls for that person first," Esther said. "The punishment is death—unless the king holds out his scepter."

Mordecai said, "If you don't stop Haman, he will kill you too. Maybe this is why you are the queen."

Esther went to the king. He held out his golden scepter. "What is it, Queen Esther?" Esther invited the king and Haman to a feast. After eating, the king said, "What do you want, Queen Esther?"

Esther invited him to another feast. The next day, Haman and the king went to Esther's feast. After eating, the king said, "What do you want, Queen Esther?"

Esther spoke up, "There is a plan to kill me and my people."

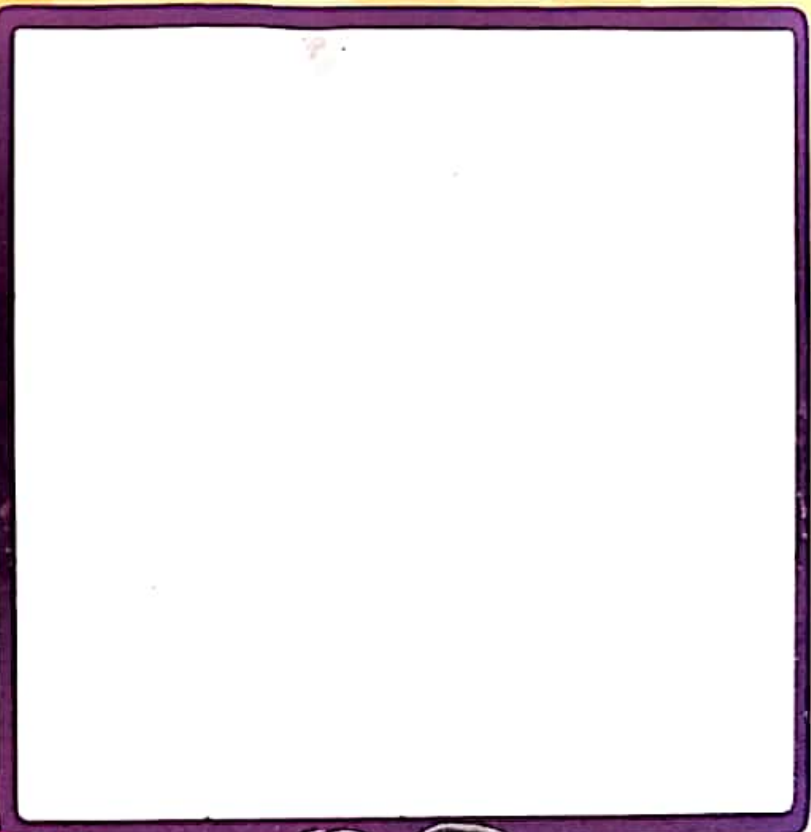

The king replied, "Who is responsible for this plan?"

"This evil enemy—Haman!" Esther said. The king was angry! He punished Haman and made a law to keep the Jewish people safe from their enemies.

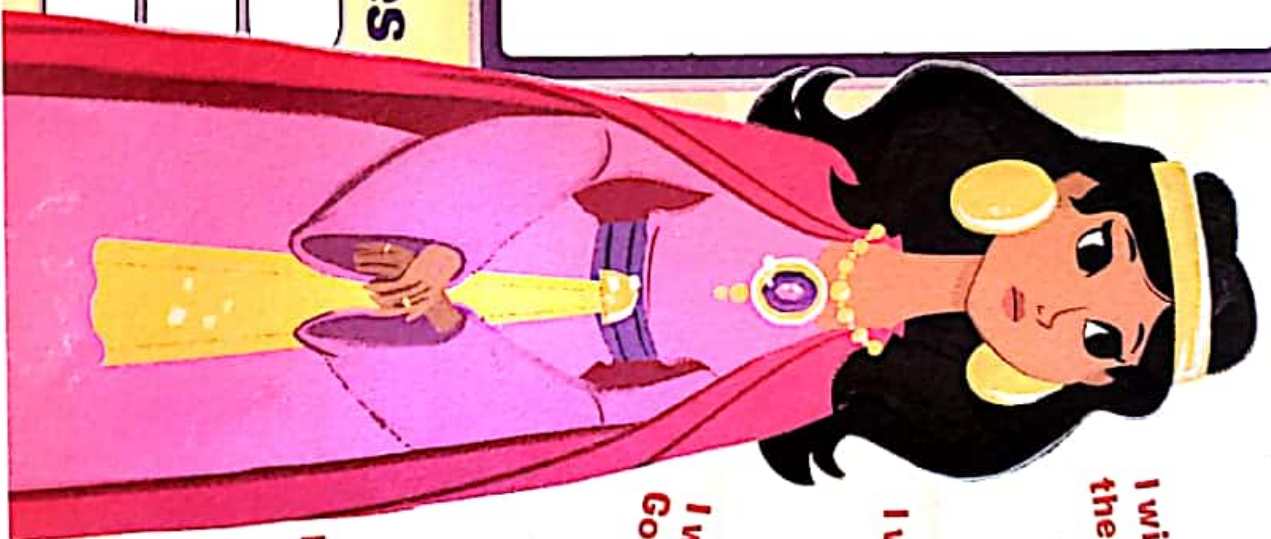

Christ Connection: God was in control over Haman's evil plan to destroy the Jews. Like Haman, Satan wants to ruin God's plan and destroy believers. Satan thought he had won when Jesus died on the cross, but God raised Jesus from the dead and defeated Satan once and for all. All who believe in Jesus are rescued from sin and death.
