Sermon: "Running the Race of Life"

A Study in God's Word Based on Philippians 3:12-16

In this passage, the Apostle Paul has set before us a splendid set of guidelines for getting the most out of life. His recommendations come in the form of what I call three pithy "Pauline Pointers":

I. KEEP THE PROPER PERSPECTIVE ON LIFE — vv. 12-13a

II. MAINTAIN THE PROPER PERFORMANCE IN LIFE — vv. 13b-14

Two distinct elements:

A. We are to FORGET what lies BEHIND — vv. 13a, 14a

B. We are to REACH forward to what lies AHEAD — vv. 13b, 14a

III. FOLLOW THE PROPER PROCEDURE FOR LIFE — vv. 15-16
