Sharing God's Extravagant Grace Inspiring Hope

10 AM SUNDAY is COMING... so is Jesus

Scripture Lectionary Readings 6/10/2018

Genesis 3:1-10

Psalms 130

2 Corinthians 4:13-16

Mark 3:20-35

The psalmist ponders the mystery of God's love for mankind in his marveling question of "What is man that you are mindful of him." (Ps. 8:4). In this Sunday's Scripture readings the depth of our God's desired relationship with us is revealed. The tension of the Genesis sin and the Gospel unbelief, is absorbed in the love of Christ as he calls us into his new family through his redemption and resurrection.

Come and share God's Divine revelation through the Holy Scriptures and sacrament of Holy Communion this Sunday.

Quote of the Week " " "The sacramental reality of Christ's real presence at the communion table always brings reordering of our lives..... If we can recognize his presence at work around the table, we will be able to recognize his work in the rest of our lives as well" ~David Fitch "Faithful Presence"
