Dear church friends,

Every Christmas Eve Isaiah 9:2-7 is our Old Testament reading. Whatever the original meaning of Isaiah’s prophesy, and no matter whose birth prompted the prophet’s lyrical expressions of rejoicing and hope, on Christmas Eve the “child ... born for us” will always be the baby in the manger, and the “son given to us” will be God’s very own.

But, even on Christmas Eve, parts of this text always seem to be mocked by current events. This year seems no exception. In some ways even more so than others. War looms prominently in our daily news. Violence, terrorist attacks, and the proliferation of the abuse of power are far too common to our daily experience. There is great darkness in our world.

And not just the darkness of the world, but also the darkness of our own lives: family quarrels, disease, suffering, aging parents, rebellious children, marriage problems, financial worries, addictions, fear and guilt, loneliness, bereavement. And for our church, the diminishing sense of relevance of our Lutheran traditions and beliefs. Darkness is no small part of our everyday life...even at Christmas!

I think that’s what makes Isaiah’ prophesy so remarkable. In verse two we hear, every Christmas Eve, that the darkness is precisely where the light of Christ is born into.

“The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them the light has shined.”

“Light” is a metaphor for the presence of God, the approach of God’s grace, mercy, and peace. Isaiah refers to “a great light”. The light of Christ, while “great” indeed for those who have seen and welcomed it, was not “great” at its coming, in the sense of being a blazing or blinding light, and is not “great” in that sense now. It was born to a humble Mary and Joseph in a manger. And even now this great and powerful light comes to us in a gentle, humble, and modest gift of love that does not coerce or overwhelm. Yet, it is more than enough to disperse the darkness, even if for a moment, as if to remind us that “This, this is Christ the King, whom shepherds guard and angels sing: Hast, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the Son of Mary!” He truly is the Prince of Peace for this world and the Wonderful Counselor for our daily lives.

May the light of Christ be born into the darkness where you are walking, and may it give you the grace and peace with which to be the light of Christ for someone else who walked in darkness.

Merry Christmas,

T Pastor Rich

Isaiah 9:2-7

*²The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.*

*³You have multiplied the nation,
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.*

*⁴For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.*

*⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors
and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.*

*⁶For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named*

Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

*⁷His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.*

*He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.*

TUESDAYS: 5PM-6PM
Led by Pastor Rich Register by emailing to:
pastor@saintjohnss.com

Beginning December 5th, join Pastor Rich for a special 4-week Advent series to better understanding our Jewish neighbors' perspective of the war between Israel and Hamas. We will be reading together a book by Noa Tishby, titled Israel: A Simple Guide to the Most Misunderstood country on Earth.

To participate, email Pastor Rich pastor@saintjohnss.com and he will send you the Zoom Link to join the study.

I want to begin with a question: have you ever talked to yourself? If so, why? There is no one here to judge you, so go on... be honest. I will admit that I have been known (mostly by me) to talk to myself on occasion. Some say talking to yourself is a sign of genius, so it actually makes sense that I would, right!?

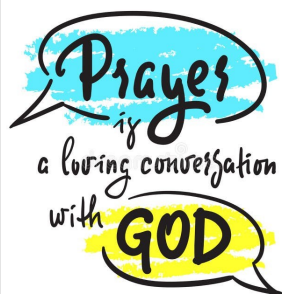

Ok, in all seriousness, talking to yourself is neither good or bad, it is just a way some people process what is going on in the world around them. According to Medical News Today, an online medical news outlet, "While children often talk to themselves, it should not be a cause for concern for parents or caregivers. It is a way of developing language, staying stimulated during a task, and improving performance while completing tasks. The habit of self-talk may continue into adulthood and is generally not a problem." So you see, talking to yourself can be a positive habit to get in to.

I wonder if you have ever prayed? For some folks, praying can feel a lot like talking to yourself. While there are similarities like, you are the only one physically in the room OR you could look crazy if people are watching, there is one BIG difference. When you are talking to yourself YOU are the only one who will talk back. When you pray, if you allow some time and space, GOD can, and often does respond. After all, Prayer is really a Loving Conversation with God.

As we enter into the Advent season we are reminded, once again, that God came to the earth in HUMAN form as a baby. God came as Jesus to live among us, to grow up among us, to understand what it is like to BE us, to be IN THE ROOM when we needed someone to talk to other than ourselves. Conversation is a two-way street. This advent I pray you are able to slow down, to gaze at the manger, to open your ears and your heart, to listen to what God is saying. And, if you find yourself talking to the radio, the tv, or to yourself, invite God into the conversation, be present in the stillness, and listen. Really listen. You might be surprised to discover what God is saying to you.

Happy Advent & Merry Christmas!
peace, Diana

WILSON AREA FOOD PANTRY NEWS

On November 17 the Wilson Area Food Pantry served 130 families. The number of families translates to 520 individuals ranging in age from small children to senior citizens. It was our largest distribution since the end of the Covid shut down. We primarily serve the Wilson School District as well as the Wyomissing area.

Donations to the pantry are vital to the support that we can give to the families in need. Food donations such as peanut butter, spaghetti, pasta sauce, mac and cheese, canned fruit and vegetables, cereal, and canned tuna or chicken which is collected from the supporting churches on the Wednesday morning prior to the pantry distribution is provided to the families along with food provided by Helping Harvest. In December we will collect on Wednesday December 13 for a distribution on Friday December 15 (the third Friday of December). Our dependence on the donations from our supporting churches is even more important than ever as the need grows. Please fill our two grocery carts especially at this time of year when we emphasize giving to help those in need.

We are very grateful for all the support that Saint John's gives the pantry. That support is both food donations and financial donations which is used to buy food as well.

It is our mission to serve God by helping those in need.

We are also grateful for our volunteers. Especially Ashley Witkowski and the teenagers from the Hope for Humanity club. It was wonderful to see so many young people helping.

News from Council

At the November 19th Congregational Meeting the congregation approved a 1st Quarter budget for 2024, which holds the line on all expenditures to 2023 levels while we consider ways to bring our expenses into alignment with income. Right now, our budgeted expenses for a year total $500,000 and our stable income for a year is $400,000. That is a $100,000 or 20% deficit we need to close the gap on. We do have $400,000 in savings accounts that we can lean on in transition and to cover capital improvements and repairs to our facilities. More than half of our budget is staff, which is where we will need to unfortunately consider cuts.

At their November 21, 2023 meeting your Congregational Council:

Continued their discussion of the book, Giving to God, considering whether we acquire, regard, manage and spend money in God-pleasing ways. They also discussed whether it is possible to subscribe to 100% stewardship, using all of our money as God would want.

Considered the Finance Committee's budget recommendations and discussed additional ideas for reducing our budgetary reliance on our investment funds.

Determined the discussion plan for the November 26, 2023, Congregational Conversation which will focus on our budget, continuing the conversations that began at the Congregational Meeting. We will be placing surveys on the table to solicit input regarding mission and budgeting as well as discussing ideas from the congregation.

Learned that the Care Team is still accepting donations for the care bags for Smiles We Miss to be assembled at the next Ministry Teams Meeting scheduled for December 5th.

Learned the fire and security safety system installation is progressing well and should be completed in early December.

Learned the Serve Team has decided to revise the monthly Mission giving foci. We will add a benefiting agency and add a separate quarterly giving envelope for the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.
