A Brief Statement of Faith

We trust in God, the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church. The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed, claims us in the waters of baptism, feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation, and calls women and men to all ministries of the Church. In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior, to unmask idolatries in Church and culture, to hear the voices of peoples long silenced, and to work with others, for justice, freedom, and peace.

Prelude

Call to Worship

(One) In ages past, our ancestors burned incense to please God.

(Many) This day we offer up the fragrance of our lives to you, O God.

(One) In days of old, our ancestors sacrificed animals in worship of God.

(Many) Today we gather to offer the first fruits of our week, our lives, our spirits in worship.

(One) We come as we are, seeking to worship and be transformed by El Shaddai.

Prayer of Adoration and Praise. . . through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Hymn "Fairest Lord Jesus" no.630

*Prayer of Confession (In Unison)

We confess, O God, that we are accustomed to using measures we have inherited from our culture: comparing, competing, and consuming; and your measures are often pushed to the back of the drawer.
