Key Verse: Psalm 118:29 “Give thanks to the Lord, His faithful love endures forever.”

Despite all the ups and downs that you will encounter in your life, we must give thanks to the Lord. We must remember that His love endures forever, which means we must and can endure the trials that we face in life. We get fed lies, by Satan, constantly, and it can easily discourage us. We must prayerfully discern what thoughts come our way. We are called to test everything. Even Jesus was faced with lies from Satan, and needed strength to overcome any temptation. So let’s always praise and give thanks to the Lord, as we endure life’s challenges. At the same time let’s celebrate and give thanks to the small victories and losses because no matter what, we will always have hope. This season, leading to the cross, let’s look for an opportunity to share that hope and our thankfulness with others.

Prayer: “God help me to be thankful, no matter what comes my way. Amen.”

Scriptures: Psalm 118, Jeremiah 23:16-32, 1 Corinthians 9:19-27, Mark 8:31-9:1
