

Day 30 “He Call to Us and We Know His Voice”

April 9

by
Susan Pahl

Key Verse: John 10:9 “I am the door. If any man enters in through me, he will be saved, and he will go in and out, and he will find pasture.”

When I first started thinking about the scripture passages for today’s devotional, I started with Jeremiah 25. Jeremiah is predicting the capture and destruction of Israel because they failed to keep their covenant with God. Because of their sin, they had lost fellowship with Him and were even unwilling to hear from Him when He spoke to them through His prophets like Jeremiah. In Romans 10, Paul talks about how we do not have an excuse because we have heard the good news that there is now a new covenant with God through the death and resurrection of Christ, for when Christ conquered death, He took the punishment for our sins. In John 10, Jesus talks about being our shepherd, and that he willingly laid down his life for us. He also talks about how we, who are His, will know His voice. And we are His because we have listened, and heard the good news, and have accepted God’s invitation to have fellowship with him. And with that thought, I was brought back to Psalms 128. Because God has made this wonderful plan for our salvation from the horrible punishment we deserve, we should be full of praise to Him, and when we walk with our Shepherd in the way of our Lord, we shall be blessed in every aspect of our lives.

Prayer: “Thank you Lord for loving us so much that you willingly laid down Your life for us, and because we heard You calling our name, we can live in fellowship with You.”

Scriptures: Psalm 128, Jeremiah 25:30-38, Romans 10:14-21, John 10:1-18