As We Gather

"All things work together for good," today's Epistle proclaims, "for those who love God." That means us! But how does it happen that we love God? God predestined, called, justified, and glorified us, all because He loves us. He loved us so much that He "did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all." By faith we are part of God's people. By the grace of God, the Kingdom has been revealed to us like discovered treasure in a field or a pearl of great price, as Jesus teaches in two parables in the Gospel. Although as sinner-saints we may not perfectly endure tribulation, distress, and persecution, on the Last Day, by grace we shall be considered righteous because of all that God has done for us.

Invocation

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Opening Sentences

Romans 11:33; Deuteronomy 7:7, 9; Romans 11:36

Pastor: Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!

People: How unsearchable are His judgments and how inscrutable His ways!

Pastor: The LORD set His love on you and chose you.

People: Know therefore that the LORD is God.

Pastor: For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things.

People: To Him be glory forever. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Romans 8:31–32

Pastor: You are a people holy to the Lord your God.

People: We confess our unholy thoughts, words, and actions.

[Silence for personal reflection]

Pastor: Almighty God,

People: we have not lived up to our calling as Your treasured possession. Our desires are selfish and our love is shallow. We have turned aside from doing good and chosen to treasure things of creation rather than our Creator. In our sinful state we are vulnerable to the devil, death, and darkness. And so we seek Your mercy. We surrender to Your loving kindness in Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Pastor: "What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?"

People: "He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also with Him graciously give us all things?"

Pastor: Indeed, the mercy of almighty God is displayed in the giving of His Son, Jesus, to die for you, and for His sake God forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of the Word and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.
