

Stained Glass Gazette

First Presbyterian Church, Moultrie, GA

December 4, 2025

Greetings in Christ,

What a wonderful warm Advent welcome we have received here in Moultrie and First Presbyterian Church! Special thanks is extended to Dan and Fliss Jeter for their gracious hospitality in providing a place for us to reside while waiting on our home on 1st Street to be completed.

As indicated on Sunday, Cathy and I are so very happy to be starting off the liturgical year with you by participating in your holiday traditions. Today, I was blessed to spend time in your beloved sanctuary during the Tuesday prayer time provided by the faithful elders of this church. While sitting in the sanctuary, and enjoying the soft music and peaceful solitude, I began to do a little journaling and was reminded of my meditative moments on the Isle of Iona, just off the coast of Scotland. This is the very center of Celtic Christianity, a place where people come from all over the world for peace, reflection, and spiritual retreat. I'm glad to have that opportunity just steps aways from my office on each Tuesday at FPC.

Speaking of which, my office, is located in Vereen Hall, directly across from the library. You will find me however roaming in and around our campus throughout the day. Feel free to drop in anytime. I am here in Moultrie three weeks out of four. Penny will always know of my location and availability to meet with you.

I am so excited about the remaining Advent activities. Our very first WATCH supper, the continuation of our Advent study celebrating communion, the lighting of the Chrismon Tree, the Christmas Cantata, parties galore, and of course our Christmas Eve service will be a true blessing.

Finally, I wish you all a most beautiful season of preparation and reflection in anticipation of Christ's coming. It truly provides a dedicated time to slow down, pray, and reflect on the themes of hope, peace, joy, and love, which helps in discerning God's will in our lives and in the world.

Hope to see you on Sunday!

PW Christmas Project: Heaters for Home Care

Once again this year the Presbyterian Women will partner with Colquitt Regional Hospice for one of our Christmas projects.

The Presbyterian Women are asking for your help by donating funds to purchase small heaters for patients in the Home Care Program. Many of these patients have no heat in their homes and new patients are continually being added. Your generous help can make a real difference in keeping these patients warm this winter. Check the instructions on the wall by the tree in the Fellowship Hall. The last day for donations will be Friday, December 19th.

TUESDAY PRAYER & REFLECTION

On Tuesdays, now through Jan. 6, 2026, from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., the sanctuary will be open to allow anyone a time for silent reflection and prayer.

This time is intended to allow for a personal and intentional time of quiet to pray, read scripture, or journal to consider God's presence, fostering a deeper relationship with God and providing a spiritual anchor in a world full of distractions.

There will be no program or music. Come and go during this time as you wish.

HELPING HANDS COLLECTION BOX

This quarter, First Presbyterian is collecting money and food for the Colquitt County FOOD BANK. Bring in non-perishable items like canned food and peanut butter.

The Food Bank can maximize food purchases with dollar donations during this critical time. If you would like to donate money to feed local people in need, just write a separate check to FPC and put "Food Bank" in the memo line.
