In FPC Preschool News

Our fellowship hall was filled with proud parents and grandparents on May 12th to watch their preschoolers perform songs and verses and to see the four-year-old class graduate.

FPC Preschool also bid farewell to a couple of strong leaders who have been dedicated to the children and the program: Marilee Bridges, long-time four-year-old teacher; and Anna Davis, who has been the volunteer Preschool Director for the last four years. THANK YOU, Marilee & Anna. You will be missed.

Personnel Chair Laura Perry Johnson announced the line-up for the next school year: Aubrey Bennett will be moving up to teach the four-year-old class. Dawn Davis has recently been hired to teach the three-year-old class. Mary Madelyn Jacobs is continuing as the two-year-old teacher. The one-year-old teacher Hope Keigans will also become the Lead Teacher for our preschool. And, Logan Hall has recently been hired as the general para pro for our program.
