

Atomic Habits

_____ habits. _____ results.

Successful people do _____ what other people do _____.

⁷ Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. ⁸ Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. ⁹ Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

Next Steps

Deeper Study

Read Matthew 22:36-40. What are the two most important commandments according to Jesus? Read Luke 16:19-31. What is trying to teach us in this parable? What does this teach us about hell, evangelism, and the need to tell others about Jesus?

Discipleship Discussion Guide

- Look through the sermon notes and your personal notes from the message, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, confused you, or challenged you?
- Why is managing relationships so difficult? Right now, what three relationships in your life are the most important to you? Why? What can you do to better nurture them?
- Read through Luke 16:19-31. What descriptive words are given in the passage regarding hell? Looking at verse 27-28, what is he begging someone to do? How can we initiate relationships that point others toward Christ? How can we (personally and as a church) be more intentional in telling others about Jesus and the reality of hell?
