On mission to make and multiply disciples of Christ in our neighborhoods, among the nations, and of the next generation.

Ecclesiastes - Matt Yount - Begins March 8th

Does life "under the sun" feel like "chasing after the wind"? That's what the wise King Solomon concluded almost 3000 years ago. Our Sunday School on Ecclesiastes will look at Solomon's conclusions on how to find lasting purpose and genuine joy by living life the way God intended. Solomon's conclusions are as true now as ever!

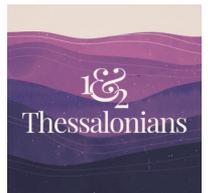

Biblical Practices of Parenting - Jeremy Kallin - Begins March 8th

Springboarding from Deuteronomy 6, Biblical Practices of Parenting is designed to equip parents with a clear basis for decisions that set habits of the household in light of current pressures. This course is designed to explore the routines and practices that give families their trajectory toward a Christ-honoring home. Topics will include Cultural Shifts, Marriage as Parenting, Digital Stewardship, Proper Worship, Work and Sabbath, and more.

1 & 2 Thessalonians - Paul Roberts - Begins March 8th

Paul's letters to the church in Thessalonica offer encouragement for a persecuted church, focusing on steadfast faith, love, and hope in Christ. Such practical guidance for holy living urges believers to live righteously in anticipation of His return. This verse-by-verse study is sure to encourage and bless you.

1 Peter - Steve Hargett - Begins March 8th

Learn from the Apostle Peter's writings to the dispersed believers how to endure persecution without bitterness and see it as a time to rejoice while living an obedient, victorious life. While Peter warns believers that the devil is always looking for someone to devour, he also reminds them of God's abundant mercy and the inheritance being reserved for them in heaven even now.
