Camp Rules and Policies

Dear Parents,

To ensure that your child's experience is safe and enjoyable, the following rules and policies have been established. It is understood that by enrolling your child in Art and Psalms, you and your child agree to these rules. Please read and sign the below, and submit by June 11, 2018.

1. We request that all participants respect each other and treat one another as they would like to be treated.
2. Students agree to respect the instructors and counselors. Disrespect and misconduct is condition for being sent home. If a camper breaks the rules, a time out will be enforced as a warning. If, after the time out the camper continues to misbehave, he or she will be removed from the camp setting and the parent/guardian will be asked to pick up his/her camper.
3. No electronic games, toys or devices allowed. Please leave all valuables at home, as we are not responsible for any items lost during camp. If your child must carry a phone, please note that the mismanagement of the phone (playing games, texting, etc. during instruction) warrants the phone being taken away from your child immediately.
4. Phones with cameras may be used during certain instruction periods as part of an art project. If your child does bring a cell phone, he or she is responsible for keeping up with it and for its appropriate use.
5. Please be sure to label all your camper's belongings clearly with their name.
6. All campers must be picked up on time (3 pm).

I have read and agree to the above rules and policies.
