Family Ministry Director

The Family Ministry Director is responsible for developing, sustaining, and growing a ministry for children, youth, and families. Specifically, the Family Ministry Director provides vision, energy, oversight, and daily direction to all aspects of ministry including infants through High School and their families. A Bachelor's degree and a minimum of 1-year experience working with children, youth and their families is required.

Applicants should email resumes and experience to bobreeves1@gmail.com

Contemporary Service Music Leader

The Music Leader for The Gathering will be responsible for reviewing and choosing music, facilitating rehearsals with the worship band (The Heart of Worship), and working with the pastor and worship team to plan The Gathering worship service. Candidates must be proficient in working with a band, recruiting band members, and leading people musically in worship. They need to be familiar with up-to-date contemporary Christian music as well as old, familiar hymns. They also need to be strong musically on vocals and/or guitar or keyboard. Soundboard and multimedia experience is also necessary.

Applicants should email resumes and experience to fumcgpmusicleader@gmail.com
