Hymn, "Our God, Our Help in Ages Past."—

Our God, our Help in ages past, Our Hope for years to come, Our Shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.	A thousand ages in Thy sight Are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night Before the rising sun. Time, like an ever-rolling stream, Bears all its sons away; They fly forgotten as a dream Dies at the opening day.
---	---

Our God, our Help in ages past;
Our Hope for years to come;
Be Thou our Guard while troubles
last,
And our eternal home.

Introductory Address.

Presentation .....The Rev. Harry E. Ecker, Reading, Pa.

Unveiling .....Master William G. Andrews

Acceptance Address .....Mr. Frank Greenleaf,
President of Board of Trustees.

Prayer of Dedication.

Crusader's Hymn.—

Fairest Lord Jesus, Ruler of all nature, O Thou of God and man the Son; Thee will I cherish, Thee will I honor, Thou, my soul's Glory, Joy, and Crown.	Fair are the meadows, Fairer still the woodlands, Robed in the blooming garb of spring; Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer, Who makes the woeful heart to sing.

Fair is the sunshine,
Fairer still the moonlight,
And all the twinkling, starry host:
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels heaven can boast.

OLD UNION PRESBYTERIAN CEMETERY

SOUTHERN LANCASTER COUNTY
PENNSYLVANIA

FOREWORD

THIS booklet contains the names of a sturdy group of those early pioneers who settled in southern Lancaster County near the section now called Union. In its pages are found the names of those families who had an important part in the early development of this great county from the year 1723 to 1840. These names represent the group who have long since our time returned to dust in the Old Union Presbyterian Cemetery.

As a fitting tribute to those great pioneers, and in memory of his beloved and departed wife, William H. Andrews, a direct descendant of the early family of that name, has had placed on that sacred spot a large memorial which will perpetuate those names for ages to come.

Hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers."—

Faith of our fathers, living still In spite of dungeon, fire and sword, O how our hearts beat high with joy Whene'er we hear that glorious word:	Our fathers, chained in prisons dark, Were still in heart and conscience free, How sweet would be their children's fate If they, like them, could die for Thee.
Faith of our fathers, holy faith. We will be true to Thee till death.	Faith of our fathers, holy faith. We will be true to Thee till death.

Faith of our fathers, we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife,
And preach Thee, too, as love knows how.
By kindly words and virtuous life.
Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to Thee till death.

Hymn, "O Love of God."—

O love of God, how strong and true! Eternal, and yet ever new; Uncomprehended and unbought, Beyond all knowledge and all thought.	We read thee best in Him who came To bear for us the cross of shame; Sent by the Father from on high, Our life to live, our death to die.
O heavenly love, how precious still, In days of weariness and ill, In nights of pain and helplessness, To heal, to comfort, and to bless!	We read thy power to bless and save, E'en in the darkness of the grave; Still more in resurrection light, We read the fullness of thy might.
O wide-embracing, wondrous love! We read thee in the sky above, We read thee in the earth below, In seas that swell, and streams that flow.	O love of God, our shield and stay Through all the perils of our way! Eternal love, in thee we rest, For ever safe, for ever blest.

Benediction.
