Crafts for a Cause

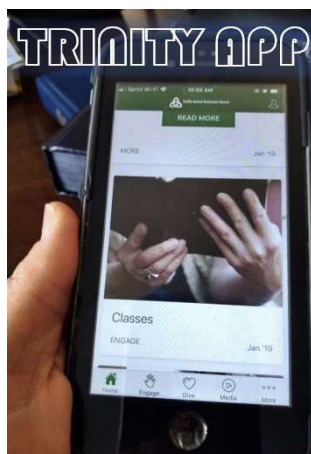

Crafts for a Cause meets twice a month on Monday nights from 7 to 8:30 in Room 124 to make comfort items for hospital patients. No crafty skills required.

Upcoming dates: May 20, June 3, June 17.

Here's a roundup of what's been delivered recently by Crafts for a Cause: 31 blankets made by Trinity members were delivered to the Linus Project, which is partnering with TAPS to provide 1,000 blankets at Camp Good Grief for children who've lost a parent to combat or PTSD. Thanks to everyone who helped! To Fair Oaks Hospital, we delivered 80 baby caps, 20 neck pillows, two lap blankets, 9 NICU beds, and 7 surgery dolls. To Christ House, we sent 20 knit caps for residents. We made 25 pillowcases for hospital patients at Children's Hospital in Richmond. Also, Chris Moore and our volunteers have prepared 50 dresses for needy girls in Honduras, another brainchild from the young women at the Leadership Center. Thanks to one and all for putting your hands to work so that others might be blessed!
