

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Esther - The Brave Queen

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

People who came before the king uninvited were in danger of being imprisoned or even killed, but Esther went in boldly to save her people. Heroes have the courage to make the right decisions even when it's hard.

Esther 4:8-17 and 5:1-3, Esther's Request

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Take a walk through a movie aisle or toy aisle in a store this week. How many female action heroes do you see? Can you and your kids think of any female heroes who made tough choices like Esther?

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Who was Esther?
- How did Esther become a hero to her people?
- How can we find the courage to make the right choice?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

Psalm 118:14 "The LORD makes me powerful and strong; he has saved me."
(GNT)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Making the right choice isn't easy when no one else seems to be making the right choice. Pray for our kids to have the courage to stand up to peer pressure and follow God's Word as they make their tough choices.
