

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With Your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: THE BOOKS ABOUT JESUS!

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

The Gospels are the books that change the whole story of the Bible. Jesus has come to fulfill the prophecies, to pay the price for our sins, and set us free. John 3:16-17, Jesus Sums Up His Life's Mission

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Ask the kids to teach you the hand motions they learned to help them remember the Gospels. See if they can remember all of the books from the beginning.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What story do we find in the Gospels?
- Who wrote the four Gospels?
- Why does the Bible give us four versions of the same story?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"God has breathed life into all Scripture. It is useful for teaching us what is true. It is useful for correcting our mistakes. It is useful for making our lives whole again. It is useful for training us to do what is right." 2 Timothy 3:16 (NIV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

The Gospels are the turning point of the Bible. We are no longer lost in sin because Jesus has conquered sin and death. Make a plan to read through the Gospels with your kids. Start with the shortest, Mark, and see how far you can get before next Sunday.
