THIS WEEK'S LESSON:

5 Simple Ways to Make This Week's Lesson Stick

IN THE CAR:

Paul was a bold follower of Jesus, but he didn't start out that way. The old Paul – who was called Saul – was trying to stop the Christians, even kill them. But when Jesus got ahold of Saul, everything old became new!

HANGING OUT:

Do you prefer old things or new things?
Why?

AT DINNER:

Do we know anyone who has changed their life because of Jesus?
Why do you think some people don't want to let Jesus make them into a new creation?
Fill in the blanks for this sentence in a way that relates to your faith: I once was _____, but now I'm _____.

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:
"When anyone lives in Christ, the new creation has come. The old is gone!
The new is here!" – 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NIRV)

PARENT TIME:

No one wants to see the old-to-new transformation more than a child's parents. Sometimes we see the worst of our children, but we also get to see the best of them. God chose you especially to lead your child to Christ. Are you living in a "new creation" mindset? This week, talk to your kids about what it was like when you had a true transformational encounter with God like the one Saul experienced in our story today.
