But He Was Failing
In His English Class.

“If I make the winning shot in a basketball game everybody is going to be all over me.”

A person is walking away from the camera down a long, brightly lit school hallway. The person is wearing a blue t-shirt, dark pants, and a backpack. The hallway has lockers on both sides and fluorescent lights on the ceiling. The text is overlaid on the image in a large, white, sans-serif font.

“But if I make A’s in my classes, nobody is going to say anything to me when I walk down the hallway.”
