

Might Be From The Hood
(Get song on SoundCloud at EYG Music)

Hook

Might from the hood
Or across the tracks
Not gonna hold you back
Not gonna hold me back

What's inside of me
Is a heart of gold
Gotta let you know
Gotta let you know

Verse 1

Outta that concrete I rose
All I wanted to do was drive a Rolls
Cause they said where I'm from
Man them things like UFO'S
And I'm an alien in places
At least on the faces when it shows
Man I show you true ambition
You surprised that I got goals
And it got a love that can't compare
Even on them blocks that got despair
So just imagine the cross you bear
When they try to box you in a square
Tell me what you see up in the mirror
When you look, search for the truth
Then you'll see your city, you,
Your foundation and your roots

Hook

Might from the hood
Or across the tracks
Not gonna hold you back

What's inside of me
Is a heart of gold
Gotta let you know
Gotta let you know

Verse 2

I can say the place that I rest at
Showed me how to work hard, be the best at
You should probably get close
Try catch that
Man I know you think the hood is a setback
That's to my advantage when you think that
We cut big trees with a small ax
And we tackle everything at the kneecaps
Just watch for the cars with the seat back

No matter what we looking up at the same sky
Meaning ain't no limits is the truth for you and I
Don't gotta front, show where you from
Go have some pride
Cause the world needs you, needs you, no disguise

You the marker
That mean give them smarts, give them swagger
Rock star be the hood Mick Jagger
Go celebrate, man let them flag you
I mean the obstacles is nothing when you fear none
And my mind got plenty bullets, don't need a real gun

I just wanna live --- yeah
Do stuff I never did --- yeah
See stuff I never saw --- yeah
Ain't trying to rob your mall
Just know I want it all
Cause where I'm from is hard

Hook

Might from the hood
Or across the tracks

What's inside of me
Is a heart of gold
Gotta let you know
