

Where My Leaders At
(Get song at elevateyourgame.org or Soundcloud – EYG Music)

Hook

What it takes to be a Leader?
One who calls out they own plays
One who shows others right ways
What it takes to be a Leader?
One who serves his brother and his sister
Inspire them to always make a difference

Verse 1

Catch this little game while I kick it Gotta stand out to stand in, Get It?
Gotta see the difference in being different
But never keep your distance so they can witness Gotta be a good example and they will listen
Like for instance
Every sentence that you speak you should stand by Then you'll win them over by a landslide, that's right
Relate and Motivate and watch you change lives
Realize

First it starts with you
Then it moves to your crew
Then to your community
From there you build unity
It only takes one person to get about a few to see the truth then once that's free
You tell them to "Follow me"

Hook

What it takes to be a Leader?
One who serves his brother and his sister
Inspire them to always make a difference

Where my Leaders where my Leaders at?
Stand up if you bout that

Verse 2

They gotta have confidence in you
You gotta have confidence in them
You gotta inspire them to do more and do everything with excellence
And when things get hectic, you can't get reckless, gotta stay calm within Cause they gotta trust you well enough to get through it in the end
And you responsible for that Keeping things on the right track
Ya'll got one common goal
And ain't no sense in turning back
Gotta be forward thinking, ahead of the curb Clear direction so they can learn
And if they struggling that's your concern
Don't back down when it's your turn

First it starts with you
Then it moves to your crew
Then to your community
From there you build unity
It only takes one person to get about a few to see the truth then once that's free
