

FAMILY VACATION

MAY 27

ROAD MAP

INTRODUCTION

Are you leading your kids or are they leading you? Parents are commanded to teach their children the ways of the Lord daily. A life of faith and love for the Lord is best modeled at home by mom and dad because kids learn most by watching.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What are some activities or traditions that your family does that are important to you? Have these changed over time?
2. What are some characteristics your kids see in you that you would want them to embrace/reflect? What are some characteristics your kids see in you that you don't want them to embrace/reflect?
3. Read Deuteronomy 6:1-6 and Proverbs 22:6. Have you ever thought about your parenting priority? How would you define it?
4. What would others say (by watching you) is the most important thing in your life? Are you okay with that?
5. What is one area in your life where you are not modeling the kind of behavior you want to see in your kids?
6. How can we better lead our kids or those around us?

MOVING FORWARD

Are you loving God with all of your heart or some of your heart? Is there any hypocrisy in any area of your life? Are you telling your kids one thing and then holding yourself to a different standard? Ask yourself: "What is one thing we can do better as parents to help them know God more?"

CHANGING YOUR MIND

My child, listen when your father corrects you. Don't neglect your mother's instruction. What you learn from them will crown you with grace and be a chain of honor around your neck. Proverbs 1:8-9
