EVANGELICAL MISSION

February 2026

A Legacy of Remembrance

As this year began, another saint joined the "cloud of witnesses" who carried the baton of Polish Evangelical Missions (PEM). (Russ Brown passed away 12/31/25.) We are standing on the shoulders of giants who started this work out of simple, brotherly love. We are looking back and remembering the ones who paved this path and to remind ourselves exactly why we do what we do.

"I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always offering prayer with joy in my every prayer for you all, in view of your participation in the gospel from the first day until now. For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus." — Philippians 1:3-6

Dr. Kyle Wilson, Gene Jankowski, Russ Brown, Cezary Komisarz.

1997–2026: The Baton is in Our Hands 🇵🇱

Honoring Our Pioneers:

- Dr. Kyle Wilson (The Founder): Sparked by a challenge from Polish students in 1997, he saw a nation that was "religious" but lacked evangelical laborers. He stepped into the gap to support the Polish minority.
- Gene Jankowski (The Pillar): A son of Poland and a 20-year pillar of PEM. He was our voice - translating, housing, and connecting Polish pastors to the support they desperately needed.
- Russ Brown (The Heart): For 14 years, Russ and his wife Doris poured their lives into Poland, leading teams and passing his passion for the Polish people to his congregation - including our current director - Dwayne Borg.

The Faithful Board: We also honor the "behind-the-scenes" board members who have served faithfully for decades, such as Bonar Sabby, who has carried the heavy responsibility of stewardship as Treasurer for years. These members haven't just served on the Board, they have traveled to Poland on missions trips and poured their lives into supporting Polish pastors and ministry leaders over a majority of all these years.

Why We Refuse to Stop

Nearly 30 years later, the mission is as urgent as ever. Poland remains a land where evangelicals are still a minority that's facing constant hardship. Like Nehemiah, we are rebuilding their walls.

Your presence shifts the atmosphere. When we visit, when we give, and when we pray, the Polish leaders are visibly strengthened. The people hunger for a tangible relationship with the living God, and together, we are helping them find it.
