The Power of Partnership: An Update from Poland

"How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace, who brings glad tidings, who proclaims salvation, who says to Zion, 'Your God reigns!'" - Isaiah 52:7

Our recent missionary trip to Poland was a resounding success and a truly unforgettable experience. Polish Evangelical Mission (PEM) Director Dwayne Borg and I, Kasha Jankowski, along with Timothy Gosswiller (Missions Team Leader from Highland Church) and Kristi Davis (The Rock Church), spent two incredible weeks on the ground, witnessing the powerful work being done for the Kingdom.

With Andrzej Karzelek

encouraged to hear how they are spreading the gospel, serving their communities, and leading their congregations with incredible faith and perseverance.

This was not just a visit; it was an opportunity to bolster and encourage these faithful servants on the front lines. The bonds of fellowship we shared were a powerful reminder that we are all part of one body, working together to bring light and hope to the world. We saw firsthand how their tireless efforts are touching lives, from providing food for those in need to sharing the gospel through creative arts.

Over the coming months, we will be sharing more detailed stories from each of these incredible ministries. For now, we want to highlight the wonderful people we met:

- Andrzej Karzelek from Ruptawa Church, and the biggest Bibles and other resources distributor
- Cezary Komisarz, who leads tent ministries and leads food/clothing distribution in the area where he lives plus supports aid for Ukraine
- Jarek Siech, who uses pantomime and theater for powerful outreach
- Daniel & Dorota Cichocki at Camp Eden in Oćwieka
- Slawomir Foks from the church in Warsaw
- Piotr Dymkowski from the Biggest Church in Poland
