EVANGELICAL MISSION

April 2022

Many Ukrainians flee to Poland!

After learning of an orphanage in Ukraine that was in danger, Polish churches volunteered to bring them to Poland. First by bus - In which they found bombs planted - and then by train. Finally they arrived, safe and sound - 60 orphans, 500 miles from where they started; exhausted, hungry, and frightened, but also out of harms way.

Penniless, over a million Ukrainians have fled to Poland for their lives so far. We can help them by making a contribution to PEM and designating it for "Ukraine Relief".

For alternative ways to give electronically, check on our website under "pray, give and go".

Please pray for the safety of those still making their way to Poland and freedom.

It was a logistical challenge to help the many thousands of refugees move from Ukraine to Poland, house and feed them, and meet other needs they have. However, many volunteers continue to work together as one to see people's needs met.

Please continue to pray for safe travel as many join with relatives in the west.
