

POLAND

EVANGELICAL MISSION

November 2023

A summer of sowing yields a harvest for the Lord.

Those converting included Poles, Ukrainians, English, and presumably more.

For better than 10 years, the church in Jastrzębie-Ruptawa (about an hour drive from Katowice) has reserved use of a park there.

The gospel has been shared there through a variety of means:
song, testimony, movies, drama, etc.

As a result, a church has been planted - and it is growing!

The remarkable thing about all of this is seen in the size of the cities involved.

Jastrzębie-Ruptawa is about 88,000.
Katowice is around 280,000

Please pray for the new converts that they may persevere in their new-found faith.

The church in Chrzanów, PL.

The current sanctuary seats 50 people max so their larger attendance is forcing people to sit in the corridors and upstairs next to the speakers to be able to take part in the Sunday service.

The present church in Chrzanów; (L) PEM representative Russ Brown, (C) Chrzanów pastor Tomasz Siewniak, (R) area pastor Jan Tomczyk.

The church plans to add on or purchase a more suitable facility that will allow them to accommodate more people. You or your church can be a part of this by contributing toward making it happen. Just send your offerings to PEM and write Chrzanów on the memo line. This makes you an active participant in helping grow a missions-minded church in Poland that is also supporting ministries in Ukraine and Pakistan.

Please pray for Poland often!
