December 2023

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Poles strive to make the lives of Ukrainians living in Poland more fulfilling!

The Church in Nowogard does it by responding to Ukrainian's real and felt needs!

- The “Help to Hope” program creates a safe space for Ukrainian families to meet together and learn Polish, along with providing trauma care and legal help.
- The Christian Help Center serves both Polish and Ukrainian people twice a week with food, clothes, and hygiene products.
- Summer Activities also included:
 - Zamość summer camp
 - Nowogard Family Festival
 - Lubiaz SLOT youth festival for about 6000 youth near Wrocław
 - They supplied tents for various events at Camp Eden, Nowy Tomyśl, Hrubieszów (at Ukrainian Border) and a Christian Motorcycle Rally at Poland Rock Festival in East Europe

On October 10th, all Polish Evangelical Churches held a national prayer time in their respective churches and collected offerings for Ukrainian Relief.

Help Ukrainians.

We reached out to you about responding to their needs and your response was terrific!
Can you do it again?

In November they distributed sleeping bags. They hope to provide other items for warmth in the coming winter months, and will continue to deliver hope, support and relief in various ways.

You can simply use the handy giving card in your mailed copy of the PEM newsletter or see the gold medallion at the bottom of the newsletter for other options.

Note "Ukrainian Relief" with your contribution.

Christmas in Warsaw, Poland.

Please pray for Poland often!
