Prelude “Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken” Haydn

Welcome/Announcement Jeff Fuhrman

*Call to Worship Michele Melhorn

Responsive Call to Worship

Leader: When the ground beneath us feels uncertain, where will we find our strength?

People: Our strength is in the Lord, who holds us fast.

Leader: When fear and worry crowd our minds, where will we turn?

People: We will bring our prayers to God and trust in God’s peace.

Leader: When disagreements threaten to divide us, how will we respond?

People: We will seek the way of Christ and care for one another.

Leader: Then come, let us worship with hope, gentleness, and joy.

All: We belong to Christ. Let us draw near to God and encourage one another in faith. Amen.

*Opening Worship Songs “Who Am I” “Mighty to Save”

Opening Prayer In Unison Debbie Henny

Faithful God,

You are our hope when the way ahead is uncertain,
our peace when worry weighs on us,
and our strength when we grow weary.

Draw us close to Christ and to one another.

Teach us to rejoice in Your presence,
to bring our concerns honestly in prayer,
and to live with gentleness and grace.

As we worship, steady our hearts in Your love and guide us in the way of Jesus.

May our words, our thoughts, and our lives
reflect the goodness of Your kingdom.
In Christ’s name we pray. Amen.
