RYOT

Today, will be going to lunch and heading to KOG in Dallas after Sunday School. We will be back around 3:30 pm.

Stephen Ministers

We invite you to join us for our Monday October 6 meeting at 7:00 in room 1.

A fear of falling is a common concern as we age, and a real risk. According to the National Council on Aging, every 11 seconds an older adult in the US goes to the emergency room because of a fall; but, there are things we can do to help reduce your risk of becoming one of those statistics! Led by Alesia Pearson, PT, DPT, and Board Certified Geriatric Clinical Specialist, join us for information and discussion related to fall risks, common causes, and things you can do for yourself or loved ones to help reduce your risk of falling and improve home safety.

First Tuesday Bible Study

On Tuesday, October 7 we will be looking at the relationship of Ruth and Naomi to see an example of friendship that sustains one another through grief and hardship. We will look at our own friendships that we have had through the years and see how hope and faithfulness sustains us even through difficult times. We can trust our earthly friends and Jesus, who has promised to be by our side forever.

Come join with our friends as we deepen our relationships with God and one another at 6:30 pm in the library. You can view the study on line, if you would like, by going to Gather magazine, Summer 2025 Bible study, session two. Hope to see you there.

For more information, call Ruth at 214-533-7554.

Women's Book Discussion

Saturday, November 1, 9:00 am Room 1

MEET THE AUTHOR We are in for a special treat as we meet local author, Sarah Damoff, and discuss her debut novel, The Bright Years. The book is available on Amazon, Barnes and Nobel, Bibliobar Book Store in downtown Plano and through the Plano Public Library. Ryan and Lillian Bright are deeply in love, recently married, and now parents to a baby girl, Georgette. But Lillian has a son she hasn't told Ryan about, and Ryan has an alcohol addiction he hasn't told Lillian about, so Georgette comes of age watching their marriage rise and fall. Years later, Lillian's son comes searching for his birth family, so Georgette must return to her roots, unearth her family's history, and decide whether she can open up to love for them—or herself—while there's still time. Told from three intimate points of view, All are welcome to join us! 9:00 am treats/coffee and social time, followed by the discussion at 9:30 am.

But this tradition relies upon Brew Crew volunteers who are willing to host the morning's event. Individuals, families, ministry groups, or buddies can sign up to handle duties that include setting up, cleaning up, making coffee, and supplying treats.
