Show Some Love for Mt. Olive

We have supported the Mount Olive Frances Byrd Horn of Plenty Food Pantry for many, many years. As their ministry evolves, their needs change, too. Rising food prices, increased demand, and essential operating expenses mean that financial support is more important than ever. Monetary donations allow them to purchase food in bulk and ensure they can continue serving their neighbors consistently. Rather than purchasing nonperishable foods, there are other ways to support them that is more useful:

Zelle: Send donations to mountolivedallas@gmail.com

Check: Mail a check (note that it is for the pantry) to Mount Olive Lutheran Church, 3100 Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd, Dallas, TX 75215

Amazon Wish List: Purchase pantry items directly through their Amazon Wish List

They assemble and distribute Blessing Bags on Wednesday mornings, and volunteers are always needed. For questions about donations and volunteering, please contact mountolivedallas@gmail.com.

Women's Book Discussion

Saturday, February 28, 9:00 am

Fourteen women enjoyed the Meadows Museum tour on January 10th relating to our last book, Attribution. Our next Women's Book discussion will be held on Saturday, February 28th at 9:00. The selection is Go As A River by Shelley Reed. Here's a summary. Seventeen-year-old Victoria Nash runs the household on her family's peach farm in the small ranch town of Iola, Colorado--the sole surviving female in a family of troubled men. Wilson Moon is a young drifter with a mysterious past, displaced from his tribal land and determined to live as he chooses. Inspired by true events surrounding the destruction of the town of Iola in the 1960s, Go as a River is a story of deeply held love in the face of hardship and loss, but also of finding courage, resilience, friendship, and, finally, home--where least expected. This stunning debut explores what it means to lead your life as if it were a river--gathering and flowing, finding a way forward even when a river is dammed. All women are welcome!
