Women's Book Discussion

Our next book discussion will be held on Saturday, May 2. As usual we meet at 9:00 am for social time/treats and begin our discussion at 9:30 am. All are welcome! Don't let the title fool you! How to Read a Book by Monica Wood Our Reasons meet us in the morning and whisper to us at night. Mine is an innocent, unsuspecting, eternally sixty-one-year-old woman named Lorraine Daigle... In this emotional book club fiction, Violet Powell, a twenty-two-year-old from Abbott Falls, Maine, is being released from prison after serving twenty-two months for a drunk driving crash that killed a local kindergarten teacher. Harriet Larson, a retired English teacher who runs the prison book club, is facing the unsettling prospect of an empty nest. Frank Daigle, a retired machinist, hasn't yet come to grips with the complications of his marriage to the woman Violet killed. When the three encounter each other one morning in a bookstore in Portland their lives begin to intersect in transformative ways.
