Tell Your Friends to Can It

What is special about August 2? It is National Friendship Day, started in 1919 by the founder of Hallmark Cards. But we don't need sappy greeting cards - we want heavy metal. Be a friend of RLC by dropping off your aluminum cans at the west doors for our monthly collection. Your offerings are exchanged for cash that goes into the AOF fund that helps pay for unexpected repairs that pop up around here.

Share The Care

Share the Care would like to start up its SOS meal program to help members. This entails help from many of our members. Previously we had four teams with six members each. This allowed for three meals a week for two weeks. This worked very well until we lost two team captains, one to death and the other to a move. Recently we have had meal requests and hate not to be able to meet this need. Members who have been hospitalized or have debilitating diseases truly need our help. As a caring congregation, we want to meet this need. Ideally, you would only have to do this maybe once a year. If you can volunteer for this ministry, please text or call Barbara Klier at 214.476.8911. Thank you

Be the G.O.A.T.

Your chance to be the greatest of all time starts soon! The beginning of Sunday School season signals the revival of Sunday morning coffee hour. Volunteers for the brew crew will be needed starting August 23. Individuals, families, friends, and ministries who sign up to host will provide treats, make coffee, set up, and clean up – kind of like throwing a little post-worship party. Training available for newbies. Contact Becky Schuerman Choi for questions and comments.

Women's Book Discussion

Saturday, September 5 9:00 am—9:30 am The Correspondent by Virginia Evans Our next women's book discussion will be held on Saturday, September 5th featuring The Correspondent by Virginia Evans. As always all women are invited! Reading encouraged, but not required. We begin at 9:00 am with social time and treats, then get down to our discussion by 9:30 am. Here's a summary to get you intrigued! Sybil Van Antwerp has throughout her life used letters to make sense of the world and her place in it. Most mornings, around half past ten, Sybil sits down to write letters—to her brother, to her best friend, to the president of the university who will not allow her to audit a class she desperately wants to take, to Joan Didion and Larry McMurtry to tell them what she thinks of their latest books, and to one person to whom she writes often yet never sends the letter. Sybil expects her world to go on as it always has—a mother, grandmother, wife, divorcee, distinguished lawyer, she has lived a very full life. But when letters from someone in her past force her to examine one of the most painful periods of her life, she realizes that the letter she has been writing over the years needs to be read and that she cannot move forward until she finds it in her heart to offer forgiveness. Sybil Van Antwerp's life of letters might be "a very small thing," but she also might be one of the most memorable characters you will ever read

GWOH #13 on September 13

The ELCA's annual "God's work. Our hands." Sunday will be on September 13! See our GWOH webpage for information about projects and plans for the day! We are collecting 5-oz cans of tuna or chicken plus boxes of macaroni and cheese for Lovepacs. Look for it on sale and stock up! Place collections on the pew by the west doors. See the table in the narthex about our fidget mats and look for doodads at home that might be good items for this purpose.
