As I sit down to write this month's article, it's been over 70 days since we had any appreciable rain in Plano. Oh sure, the drought got "broken" on September 21st when the DFW Airport received a whopping 0.01" of rain. But for Plano – zilch! It has been quite a "dry spell," as they say.

For more than two months, we have watched the grass turn brown, the ground crack, and the trees begin to look tired. Day after day the sun has come up, the temperature has climbed, and the rain has stayed somewhere else. We watch the weather forecast and get excited about a 20% chance of rain—which, by this point, feels almost like an act of faith.

We all know what drought looks like. And not just the kind measured by a rain gauge.

All of us go through droughts in life as well. There are seasons when joy seems scarce, when prayers seem to evaporate before they get very far, when relationships become strained, when grief lingers, when illness intrudes, when the future becomes uncertain. Sometimes we can point to the day the drought began. Other times we simply look around one morning and realize that somewhere along the way, things got awfully dry.

Jeremiah knew something about living through difficult times. Yet in the middle of them he writes:

"Blessed are those who trust in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit." — Jeremiah 17:7-8

Notice what Jeremiah does not say. He does not say the heat won't come. Nor does he say there won't be a drought. He says that when the drought comes (and it surely will), the tree survives because its roots reach water.

That sounds a lot like baptism to me. We are a baptized people. Long ago—or perhaps not so long ago—water was poured over us with the words, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." In that water God claimed us, named us, and joined us to the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Which means that, even when life gets dry, we are still the "walking wet."

We carry the promise of our baptism with us. The water may have dried from our foreheads years ago, but God's promise has not. Our roots have been sunk into something deeper than the circumstances of the moment. That doesn't mean drought doesn't hurt. Christians still grieve and Christians still worry. Christians get tired and frightened and lonely. Faith isn't pretending that everything is green when we can plainly see the brown grass around us.

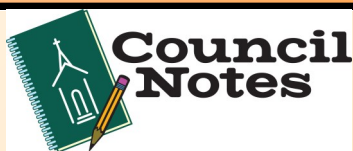

Faith is knowing where our roots are. And because those roots reach the living water of God's grace, the drought does not get the final word.

Jeremiah also reminds us that the tree continues to bear fruit in the year of drought. Maybe that is our calling, too. Even in our own dry seasons, God can still use us to offer kindness, mercy, encouragement, forgiveness, generosity, and love to someone else who is thirsty.

Eventually, I hope, the rains will come back to North Texas. I would happily listen to it pound on the roof all night. But until then, perhaps our brown lawns can remind us of something: that droughts come and heat roils. But we are rooted beside living water. We are baptized. We are claimed. We are the walking wet. And by the grace of God, we will still bear fruit.

Church Council Update

What a wonderful reminder of who we are as a church on God's Work Our Hands Sunday! The beautiful quilts covering the sanctuary, the many service projects with people of all ages engaged in tasks, conversation and community, the picking up of litter, the giving of blood – all display that we, as a congregation, are indeed dedicated to serving others. It's what sets us apart and has drawn some of our new members in.

We boldly share our convictions as Lutherans: that all life in Jesus flows from a living, daring confidence in God's grace. The ELCA is one church, freed in Christ to love and serve our neighbor every day. At Resurrection Lutheran we demonstrate this faith.

Thank you to the Impact Team for the wonderful organization, to all leaders of projects, to all donators of supplies, to all donators of blood, and to all participants for making this happen. Let us continue in our service throughout the year.

Psalm 90:17 "May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands."

R&R Gathering Saturday, October 17 Home of: Sharon Bosse

Food, fun, fellowship for all adults! Bring a favorite food and beverage to share and join us at 5:30 pm for a few hours. It's a time to get to know folks better in a low-key relaxed atmosphere, with time to move around and share stories. Anywhere from 12-30 folks gather at each R&R and we always enjoy our time together.

Worship & Music

Though Fall seems like the beginning of many things, the church season of growing our lives of faith flows on. We continue to hear Jesus tell parables and make comments that cause us to question how we live in the world. Do we choose the ways of Jesus and life by loving our neighbors as ourselves? Or have we become so comfortable that the action of loving is no longer forefront in our thinking and choices? I often recognize my lack of love in action AFTER I missed an opportunity.

Paul, in Philippians and Thessalonians, describes his new way of living after his stunning meeting with God on the road. For me, his words bring much hope, comfort and joy. Teresa of Avila wrote: “Just these two words God spoke changed my life: ‘Enjoy me.’” Paul seems to do just that, enjoy and love God as God loves him.

Isaiah speaks to us of God’s disappointment that His people, whom he loved and provided for and promised a wonderful future, chose their handmade gods and abominations. And Isaiah also speaks God’s promise to restore his people and remove their disgrace.

Paradox, mystery—the actual stuff of life in God, are all held together by God’s love for us and his creation and our love for God and for all people and God’s creation.

October 4th is the commemoration of St. Francis and the well-being of creation.

October 11th Jesus tells two stories, neither with comfortable endings. But we are called to community and God sets a table of blessing before us to which ALL are welcome.

October 18th Jesus says “... give to the emperor what is his. Give to God what belongs to God” What do you think belongs to God? How do you offer it?

October 25th Reformation and Confirmation. WEAR RED. We hear that the Son has made us free and binds us together in love through the grace of God as a gift. Let us love and enjoy God, love ourselves, love our neighbors and live the fullness of joy God offers us.

November 1st is All Saints Sunday. We read the names of those who have died in the past year and light candles of remembrance. If you wish someone included, please send the name, relationship to you, and a picture to Jan Frum (jlfrum@verizon.net) so they can be included. This is a special Sunday and very meaningful to all.

See you at worship!

Stephen Ministry

In August we celebrated RLC having the longest continuous Stephen Ministry. Everyone that had ever been a Stephen Minister stood up. Wow – there were so many that stood up. It was amazing to know our congregation is filled with folks who are trained as Stephen Ministers.

Stephen Ministers are lay congregation members trained to provide one-to-one care to those experiencing a difficult time in life, such as grief, divorce, job loss, chronic or terminal illness, or relocation.

Stephen Ministers come from all walks of life, but they all share a passion for bringing Christ's love and care to people during a time of need.

As we were told at our celebration, since 1975, more than 600,000 people from more than 14,000 congregations and other organizations have been trained as Stephen Ministers.

Resurrection Lutheran Church still has an active group of Stephen Ministers ready to serve.

If you, or someone you know, could use compassionate support – someone to listen, encourage and pray – we are still here.

Especially as we approached God's Work, Our Hands, we were reminded that while God is the cure giver, we can be the ones to water the harvest and take care of each other.

If you are interested in training to be a Stephen Minister, it is a wonderful way to be Christ's feet so just reach out and let a Stephen Minister know this interests you.

Let's all listen to those around us that just might need a helping hand of encouragement and love.

Peace be with You.

Sunday, October 4th, is the final day of Munich's 191st Oktoberfest. "According to our schedule", that is also the day of our monthly aluminum can collection. Leave your donations by the west doors so Deutsche Mark Waterman can exchange metal for moolah. The Wiesn why we have aluminum can and scrap metal collections is to generate money for our AOF fund while being good stewards of the environment. Prost!

Brew Crew Members Wanted

When your stomach starts growling during the sermon, you start thinking about your post-worship plans. Fortunately, you know that a short walk up to the kitchen after church will bring you to a place to satisfy your sweet tooth and fuel your caffeine addiction. This magically appears thanks to volunteers who host these Sunday get-togethers, and we need more to join the Brew Crew. Individuals, families, friends, and ministries who sign up will provide treats, make coffee, set up, and clean up while bringing joy to all who partake. Training available for new volunteers or as a refresher. Contact Becky Schuerman Choi for questions and comments.

Share the Care

Volunteers Needed

One vital part of Share the Care is the Transportation Team. These volunteers pick up members who need occasional rides to Church or to medical appointments. Often substitutes are needed to fill in for regular drivers who bring elderly members to Church but have to miss a Sunday or two. Currently there are only five volunteers for this important ministry. If this is something you could do on an occasional basis, call Barbara Klier at 214.476.8911.

Share the Care would like to start up its SOS meal program to help members. This entails help from many of our members. Previously we had four teams with six members each. This allowed for three meals a week for two weeks. This worked very well until we lost two team captains, one to death and the other to a move. Recently we have had meal requests and hate not to be able to meet this need. Members who have been hospitalized or have debilitating diseases truly need our help. As a caring congregation, we want to meet this need. Ideally, you would only have to do this maybe once a year.

If you can volunteer for this ministry, please text or call Barbara Klier at 214.476.8911.

Thank you

HAPPY FALL!

“HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN!” We look forward to the “Cooler Fall” days whereby we don’t have to demonstrate the “blood, sweat & tears” of sewing in the HEAT of the summer! However, we have been able to sew 177 LWR quilts that were blessed and displayed in our sanctuary on Sunday, September 13th. They will be boxed up and delivered to Messiah Lutheran Church/Plano on November 7th or 14th, 2026. Many “thanks” to all who made this mission possible – Cover Girls - fabric cutters, designers, ironers, sewers, tiers; plus, Cover Guys, Mike & Vincent, who move quilts back and forth! It demonstrates the Love, Care & Comfort these quilts give to the receivers.

Our summer mission project is – sewing kid quilts to donate within our community – always a FUN project. We have approximately 100 quilts in the “warehouse” at this time with more quilts ready to sew. If you would like to sew some of these at home, please stop by the Cover Girls Dropoff (top of stairs) to pick up and return to same area. They will be donated in November/December time frame to Plano Children’s Hospital, The Samaritan Inn/McKinney (helping families get back on their feet) and Plano/Wylie Children’s Medical Clinic.

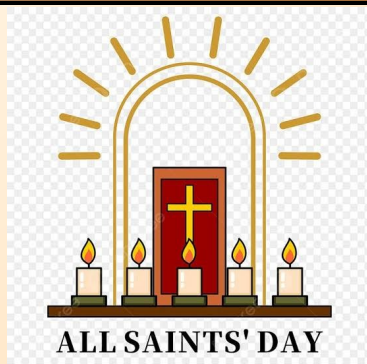

We are also kept busy sewing items for our Christmas Sale which will be starting Sunday, November 15th thru Sunday, December 20th. It has been a great event in the past. Last year our shoppers enabled us to donate $6000 to various non-profit organizations within Collin County. Watch for more Details!

Join us on Wednesdays! We are open to all who would like to sew or tie with us from 10:00 am to 3:30 pm in room 16 (outside building). Consider joining a great fellowship group so we can get to know you and you can get to know us! AND – you get that great feeling of sewing for others! If you would like to sew at home, stop by to pick up a kit or two OR pick them up in our “Drop Off” at the top of the stairs in the Narthex.

Any questions, please contact – Marilyn Neer at neermarilyn@yahoo.com or text me at – 214-557-2886.

God’s Peace and Blessings to ALL!

Trunk or Treat

Trunk or Treat will take place on Sunday, October 25th after Sunday School.

It takes a village to offer trunk or treat to the community.

Trunk or Treat, combined with games, crafts, hot dogs, chips, and a free book fair, has become a tradition in which we invite the community to join us. Did you know that we are adding a magic show? All this takes volunteers. We need 20 people to offer their decorated trunks to treat in, 4 volunteers to grill and serve hot dogs, chips, and drinks, 2 people to help with crafts, and lots of friends to join us in the celebration. Your help is crucial to make this event a success

Help Needed: Donate Candy in the Box located in the Narthex, help lead kids in Crafts, grill hotdogs and host the food tables and decorate your trunk for trick or treating. We often have lots of kids at this event and we love to have people come great the community and welcome them to RLC.

Sign up online or in the Narthex

Book Discussion

Women's Book Discussion

Saturday, November 7, 2026

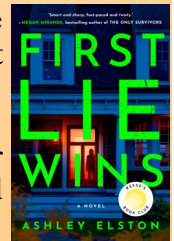

Our next women's book discussion will be held on Saturday, November 7th. As always, all are invited to join us for treats and social time at 9:00 am followed by a lively discussion beginning at 9:30 am.

Our selection is: First Lie Wins by Ashley Elston

Here's a summary:

Evie Porter has everything a nice Southern girl could want: a doting boyfriend, a house with a white picket fence, a tight group of friends. The only catch: Evie Porter doesn't exist.

The identity comes first: Evie Porter. Once she's given a name and location by her mysterious boss, Mr. Smith, she learns everything there is to know about the town and the people in it. Then the mark: Ryan Sumner. The last piece of the puzzle is the job.

Evie isn't privy to Mr. Smith's real identity, but she knows this job isn't like the others. Ryan has gotten under her skin, and she's starting to envision a different sort of life for herself. But Evie can't make any mistakes—especially after what happened last time.

Evie Porter must stay one step ahead of her past while making sure there's still a future in front of her. The stakes couldn't be higher—but then, Evie has always liked a challenge. . . .

Communion Bread Wanted

Are you willing to provide bread for Communion each Sunday. Oh, but you don't bake. No problem, your local bakery does and you can order one loaf of unsliced bread, soft crust and soft inside so it can be torn for serving, but not be crumbly. (Try the bread you choose yourself to see if it tears easily into smaller pieces and doesn't shed crumbs.) You can bring it to the Church preferably on Saturday or contact Pat Fisher to make other arrangements. Only one loaf of bread is needed for the 10:00 Worship Service each week. If you are willing to provide a loaf of bread, please let Pat Fisher know. You can email her at: pmifisher@gmail.com, sign up for one Sunday a month or only periodically.

Narrative Lectionary Discussion

The Narrative Lectionary, developed at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, is a chronological approach to studying scripture beginning with Genesis and progressing sequentially through the old and new testaments. The class meets in the Library each Sunday about 11:15. The format is an interactive, participatory discussion led by a facilitator using the reading, commentary and additional insights from scholarly sources such as the texts used in the Synod's Parish Lay Ministry Academy (PLMA). Everyone is invited and encouraged to participate in the discussion or simply listen, if they choose. Preparation is not required. (Although it will enhance your experience.) So, get a cup of coffee and a pastry and join us at 11:15. We look forward to seeing you.

God's Work, Our Hands

"God's work. Our hands." Sunday September 13

On September 13, Resurrection celebrated the 13th annual "God's work. Our hands." Sunday. The ELCA promotes this day of service to recognize our shared responsibility to care for our neighbors and improve communities. Throughout the history of GWOH, we have offered uplifting worship services, a range of service projects for all ages, donation opportunities, and food to commemorate the day... and this year was no different!

Blood Drive: 12 units of blood were donated on the Carter BloodCare bus.

Care Packages: The Care Team made 15 visits to homebound members with gift bags of cookies or small plants, and another 3 members received cookies and brief visits. Project leader: Ruth Parker

Fidget mats: 22 fidget mats were designed and then sewn by some Cover Girls. Our creations will go to a local memory care facility and maybe Children's Medical Center Plano. Project leaders: Brenda McGee, Cathie Irons

Letters Against Isolation: 9 letters were written to brighten the day of Meals on Wheels recipients. Project leader: Cathie Irons

Litter: 10 volunteers cleaned up Evans Park at 8am, removing 7½ bags of trash, 2 bags of recyclable plastics, ¾ bag of aluminum cans, glass bottles, and $14 worth of scrap metal. Project leader: Becky Schuerman Choi

Lovepacs boxes: 19 boxes decorated for use as cheery food packages that are delivered to Plano ISD students to ensure they have something to eat during school holidays. Project leader: Nancy Parker

Lovepacs food donations: 229 boxes of macaroni & cheese, 245 cans of tuna, 37 cans of chicken.

Quilts: 8 kids' quilts were tied so they can be donated to ill children in the area. During worship we blessed 177 quilts lovingly crafted by the Cover Girls to be shipped to Lutheran World Relief in November. Project leader: Marilyn Neer

Pet Beds: 7 kitty beds were created for use at the Plano Animal Shelter. Project leader: Sharon Bosse

Soap Sacks: 25 soap sacks (mostly handmade by Janice Kasper) were stitched shut and drawstrings added for use at Streetside Showers. Project leader: Cathie Irons

Volunteers also set up our potluck and cleaned up afterwards, not to mention everyone who contributed delicious dishes to share. Approximately 60 people enjoyed the camaraderie and gluttony of a potluck. We appreciate your participation in this celebration of service!
