

Check out Library Books

Visit the church library or public library and help your child pick out a few books on wild animals, sea creatures, plants, or another part of creation that excites him.